

ICAP voted “Overall Interdealer Broker of the Year” by Energy Risk

London/ Louisville, 10 February 2009 -- ICAP Energy, the energy arm of ICAP plc, has been voted “Overall Broker of the Year” in Energy Risk magazine’s annual rankings of the energy industry. ICAP Energy was awarded first place commendations in 24 categories, as well as second place rankings in eleven others. ICAP has been consistently voted top Overall Broker throughout the 15 years the Commodity Rankings have been running.

Paul Newman, Managing Director of ICAP Energy Ltd in London said: “At ICAP Energy we consciously strive to be a focused service provider, and this award recognises the service and value which we want to offer to our customers and to the industry. We want to thank our customers, Energy Risk magazine and our staff around the world for making this award possible.”

The Energy Risk rankings are a survey of the energy and commodity markets for the ‘best of the best’ in a number of products and services offered. The “Overall Broker of the Year” award is the highest in the energy industry, and ICAP has also consistently scored high in the other Energy Risk categories, including winning the overall oil and natural gas categories.

Dennis Crum, Chief Executive Officer of ICAP Energy LLC said: “The global energy market is very competitive, and we feel that one of ICAP’s strongest advantages is our unparalleled depth in markets we cover and our sincere commitment to customer service. This award is the result of these focused business practices, and we would like to thank all our customers for giving us this.”
