

ICAP voted “Overall Energy Broker of the Year” by Energy Risk

London/ Louisville, 9 February 2010 -- ICAP Energy, the energy arm of ICAP plc, has been voted “Overall Energy Broker of the Year” in Energy Risk magazine’s annual rankings of the energy industry for the fifth consecutive year. The “Overall Energy Broker of the Year” award is the highest in the energy industry. ICAP Energy was awarded first place commendations in 18 categories and second place rankings in 21 others. ICAP has been consistently voted top Overall Energy Broker throughout the 16 years the Commodity Rankings have been running.

Paul Newman, Managing Director of ICAP Energy Ltd in London, said: “ICAP Energy is totally committed to providing the best possible customer service and supporting our customers as the global energy market continues to evolve. We are grateful for this recognition and want to thank our customers and Energy Risk magazine, as well as our staff for their efforts.”

Dennis Crum, Chief Executive Officer of ICAP Energy LLC, said: “In an extremely challenging year for our industry, we are proud to know that we have met or exceeded our customer’s expectations. This award recognises our ongoing commitment to delivering new products and excellent service to our clients.”

The Energy Risk rankings are a survey of the energy and commodity markets for the ‘best of the best’ in a number of products and services offered.
